SIXTY-ONE YEARS WED

MR. AND MRS. C. C. CHANDLER CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY JANUARY 1.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler of 104 Cypress avenue, Tropico, celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary on Monday, when their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren to the number of thirty assembled at their home to honor the event, and a number of friends also came to give their congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler are both eighty years of age and bought property at Brand boulevard and Cypress street, Tropico, twenty-six years ago, coming here more or less after that time. They have lived here continuously for the past fifteen years, living at Chicago the previous thirty-seven years. Their sons and daughters are Mrs. C. L. Peckham and Mrs. E. B. Ellias of Glendale; Mrs. E. H. Weston, C. L. Chandler and A. L. Chandler of Tropico, and L. O. Chandler of Gorman. Their grandsons and granddaughter, who were present, are McNulton Barnes, P. P. Chandler and Mrs. Leta Kenney of Tropico, and Lyman Balcaman of Los Angeles, besides a number of great grandchildren.

The home was very beautifully decorated with ivy, smilax, asparagus fern, pink and red carnations and roses of different hues. The evening was spent in music and reminiscences. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler each sang an old-time song that they had learned in their youthful days. Little Miss Bessie Woods and sister danced the Highland fling; they are proficient little dancers and their dancing was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Peckham presided at the organ and a number of the young guests present contributed songs, and music was also furnished by the grafonola. Dainty refreshments were served, part of which was a very beautiful wedding cake which Mr. Chandler assisted Mrs. Chandler in cutting. The guests and relatives parted at a late hour after a most delightful celebration and a reunion that will long be held in fond memory by the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler.

NEW YEAR'S DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts of 707 West Seventh street celebrated the opening of the New Year by entertaining a number of relatives and friends at an elaborate dinner party, Monday. White roses and orange blossoms mingled with smilax and asparagus fern were used throughout the rooms in which the guests were assembled and added to the happiness of the day. An elaborate four-course dinner was served at noon at a beautifully appointed table at which were seated Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Archer and Master Lisle Archer, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mrs. Stella Trowbridge of Topeka, Kansas, who is a house guest of the Roberts', Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ingalls of Sioux Falls, S. D., who are at present at their winter home on Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, and the host and hostess. Following the dinner a happy afternoon was spent in social intercourse, music and various games.

PROF. LAICHINGER ILL

Friends of Prof, Philip E. Laichinger will regret to learn that he is very dangerously ill at his home, 239 North Jackson street. Mr. Laichinger was taken ill on Saturday with what proved to be leakage of the heart and other complications have set in that make his condition very grave. A nurse is constantly in attendance. Mr. Laichinger is a musician of unusual attainments and as such has become widely known throughout the city. All those who have heard him play and sing will deplore his serious illness and hope sincerely for his recovery.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Farrell celebrated their wedding anniversary New Year's Day with an enjoyable automobile trip. They first went to Pasadena and then on to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gaston for dinner and to Mrs. Gaston's mother's, Mrs. Abram Baker, for a very delightful evening. Mrs. Baker is Mr. Farrow's aunt and has an immense ranch, "Thistlecroft," at La Verne, Lordsburg. Dr. and Mrs. Gaston also have a large orange grove. The drive home was made late in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Farrow reaching home about midnight.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy with rain to-night and Wednesday. Light easterly to southerly winds.

PASTOR'S BIRTHDAY

REV. W. E. EDMONDS HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH

On the first day of January, 18—, a certain lady in England presented to her husband a bouncing boy as a New Year's gift. This baby boy grew to manhood and is now the pastor of the Glendale Presbyterian church. In honor of his birthday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clendenin, 246 Orange street, entertained on Monday evening Rev. and Mrs. Edmonds together with the active elders and those who have been associated with them in the work since Mr. and Mrs. Clendenin became members of the church.

The home was decorated with pink carnations and roses and Mrs. Edmonds had a large variety of stunts which kept the company amused throughout the evening. An interesting part of the program was the presentation to the pastor and his wife of a guest book in which all the guests of the evening were requested to register their names. Joseph A. Wilson assisted Mrs. Clendenin in serving lovely refreshments. The following guests assisted Rev. Edmonds in this happy celebration of his birthday: Messrs. and Mesdames David Black, John Camphouse, John E. Colvin, J. W. Fairchild, W. H. Fielding, John Horsch, M. P. Harrison, A. E. Hennon, R. P. Isitt, George Lemon, Ben H. Nichols, James A. Newton, Ed D. Stafford, H. H. Shumaker and C. C. Widney.

CURRENT TOPICS

11 YEAR OLD GIRL TRAVELS ALONE FROM ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC

Miss Eltha N. Anstey, now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Anstey, of 317 Everett street, is enjoying a distinction that comes to few young ladies of her age, which is 11 years. Eltha has been living with her grandparents at Camden, N. J., for the past two years and arrived in Glendale Monday evening, having made the trip from the Atlantic coast all alone. She left Camden Wednesday evening at half past eight and arrived in Los Angeles Monday evening after five days and five nights travel. In Chicago she missed connections and was forced to spend the night at a hotel, which did not daunt the young traveler in the least. She arrived none the worse for her long journey.

MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA

All former residents of Marshalltown, Iowa, are invited to attend a banquet, to be held at the Shakespeare Club House, in Pasadena, at 6:30 p. m. January 11, 1917. Plates may be reserved by notifying Mrs. Mina Rosenbaum, 29 Grand avenue, Pasadena, not later than January 7. Price will be 75 cents per plate. All reservations must be paid for, unless canceled three days previous to the banquet.

VALUE OF GOOD ROADS

The increase of traffic to and from the northeast of Glendale over the newly improved Glendale avenue proves the worth of good roads. The traffic over this link will be equal to that of Colorado street within a short time. When East Broadway is improved to the Eagle Rock boulevards and there is an improved outlet to the San Fernando boulevard to the west, then Glendale will get the benefit of at least fifty per cent. more traffic.

NEW YEAR'S EDITION

The Hollywood Citizen, of which Harlan G. Palmer is editor and publisher, has just issued a most creditable New Year's edition. Each department is covered very comprehensively and the edition is one which the people of Hollywood will be glad to send to their eastern friends.

ELKS HAVE OPEN HOUSE

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the informal dance at the Club Rooms New Year's evening. About fifty couples took advantage of the Elks' hospitality. Two features of the evening were the Eleven O'clock Toast by Albert Pearce and the orchestra, which was composed of Herman Henning, piano, Wm. Bodie, violin, and Leo Good at the drums.

LINING UP FOR LEGISLATION

Lieutenant Governor W. D. Stephens will in all probabilities not have need for exercising his casting vote privilege in the Senate during the coming session because the new Senate will consist of thirty-nine members instead of the usual forty. The one shy is Senator H. Stanley Benedict of Los Angeles, who is now a member of Congress serving Stephen's unexpired term. Benedict forfeited his senatorship when he became a congressman, but he will be through in Congress before the legislature adjourns. He was not elected for the full term of Congress, and no special election has been called to elect a successor for the two years he had left to serve in the legislature.

It has been seldom that a Lieutenant Governor has been called upon to decide a deadlock in the upper house, but two years ago the late Lieutenant Governor Eshleman decided the fate of the "dry zone" bill by casting the deciding vote against it. The Senate stood 20-20 on that occasion. With an uneven number of Senators, the Lieutenant Governor can demand that all absentees be brought in to vote and in that way can avoid the deciding "aye" or "no."

THE WEST GETS THE BEST

It was no surprise that Oregon defeated Pennsylvania in the intersectional football contest at Pasadena, Monday. The Oregon team is composed of typical Pacific Coast trained players, and the Pacific Coast has what is good to begin with, and then gets the best from the East. If there is a strong man mentally or physically in the East, the West gets him. The Pacific Coast makes use of the best she has in educators, athletic trainers, clergymen and then when there is a deficiency in numbers she goes East and gets the very best talent. Then, too, the West possesses that spirit of "conquer" when engaging in gaining victories.

Facts and Comment

The contract was let last week for the Del Rey boulevard which will complete the thoroughfare from Redondo Beach to Venice. Twelve hundred dollars is to be paid for the work. The road will reduce the distance approximately ten miles and being high on the bluff will be one of the scenic ocean drives in Southern California.

Mrs. Lule Warrenton has been engaged by an eastern film company as manager and directress to erect a studio at Lankershim and produce children's pictures with real children as the actors. At present only one company will be formed to produce "The Bird's Christmas Carol." The business will be worked up to five companies.

Twenty aeroplanes piloted by student aviators will fly from North Island to Los Angeles in fleet formation early in February, according to Chief Instructor Lieut. Herbert Dargue.

The Salt Lake Route will expend at least $5,250,000 in new construction and betterments in 1917, according to H. C. Nutt, general manager. Improvements will include: laying 200 miles of new 90-pound rail, costing approximately $1,500,000; additional ballast, $50,000; improving water supply at Las Vegas, Nev., $25,000; installing automatic block signals, $390,000; bridges, $120,000; miscellaneous betterments, $160,000; 750 slf-dumping steel gondola cars, 6 cabooses and 6 giant locomotives of the latest type, $1,800,000; and a new branch line 24 miles long from Pico to Santa Ana, California, costing about $1,400,000. Work begins on January 2 at various points under Arthur Maguire, chief engineer, and will be done with regard for permanency rather than speed.

LOYALTY TO BETTER SELF

"If you teach a man to keep his eyes upon what others think of him, unthinkingly to lead the life and hold the principles of the majority of his contemporaries, you must discredit in his eyes," Stevenson says. "He may be a docile citizen; he will never be a man. It is ours . . . to walk straight before us by what light we have. They may be right; but so, before heaven, are we. They may know; but we know also, and by that knowledge we must stand or fall. There is such a thing as loyalty to a man's own better self. . . . But although all the world ranged themselves in one line to tell 'This is wrong,' answer, 'This is right.' Do you think you are only declaring yourself? Perhaps in some dim way, like a child who delivers a message not fully understood, you are opening wider the straits of prejudice and preparing mankind for some truer and more spiritual grasp of truth. . . . It is good, I believe, to be respectable, but much nobler to respect oneself and utter the voice of God."

MARVEL OF THE SUNRISE

I never thought Adam had much advantage of us from having seen the world when it was new. . . . We see as fine risings of the sun as ever Adam saw, and its rises are as much a marvel now as they were in his day, and I think a great deal more, because it is now a part of the marvel that for thousands and thousands of years he has come to his appointed time, without the variation of a second. Adam could not tell how this might be.—Daniel Webster.

SO HE DIDN'T WASTE IT

A little boy went to Sunday school for the first time. His mother gave him a nickel to put in the collection box. When he returned he had a sack of candy.

"Where did you get the candy?" asked his mother.

"From the stand around the corner."

"But what did you buy it with?"

"With the nickel you gave me."

"But that was for Sunday school."

"Well," replied the boy, "I didn't need it. The minister met me at the door and got me in free."—Christian Herald.

APPEARANCES

A capitalist at a dinner said wittily of a suspected gold mine:

"Gold mines are like human beings—they can't be judged by their appearance. You know what Frank Stockton used to say about judging by appearances:

"'Don't trust a man because he carries a silk umbrella—he may have left a cotton one in its place.'"
